

REPUBLICANS

Leaders Lose Caste With National Administration and Play Petty Politics.

Keystone Police Become Affrightened and Look for Old Jobs on Street Cars.

Fire Department Makes Record Not Appreciated by the Fire Underscrivers.

NO CLEANING IN THE ALLEYS.

The wild scramble for the Federal positions under the national Republican administration in Kentucky reminds one of what a lofty tumble has been taken by Hett, Morrow, Searcy and the other leaders in the past year. For two days this past week the Herald and the Republican leaders themselves tried to magnify their importance into something of great importance or moment, when in reality it only meant the handing out of a few bootlegging chaser jobs, etc. Go back a year ago and see the attitude of Tobe, "Howdy Ed" and Ches. Then it was just after the State election in which Morrow had been chosen Governor by a majority of 40,000. All eyes were on Kentucky. The big Republican bosses throughout the United States were fawning on Tobe and "Howdy Ed," hoping to get their assistance for their Republican Presidential candidate. Every now and then Tobe, Morrow and Ches would take a trip East where they were lionized and pointed out as the men who held Kentucky in the hollow of their hand, and it would show Republican majorities for the coming year. "Howdy Ed" Morrow was even selected to nominate Vice President Coolidge in the Republican convention while there was much talk of making Morrow the Vice Presidential nominee.

But time rolled on and Kentucky had sorely repented for the election of Morrow as Governor. Carrying the terrific handicap of Beckham, the Democratic ticket swept the State and established a record equalled no other place in the Union. Consequently, when the Republican nominee for re-election, was defeated by Judge Gilbert, the Democratic candidate, Swope, being the only Republican Congressman to be defeated throughout the United States. Then came the deluge of rebuffs for the Republican bosses. Tobe Hett was eliminated as a Cabinet possibility and today the Bingham papers and the machine Herald are trying to save his pride by saying that he has just refused the position of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. Minister to Dahomey or some similar minor job. No more invitations to address Eastern Republicans came to "Howdy Ed" and he spends his time scolding grand juries, petit juries, county officials or others who disagree with his grandstand methods. As for Ches Searcy, he realizes that as a political power in the State the Republicans face further defeat and to save Louisville has thrown the State Republicans out in the cold and is trying to get some but Louisville or Jefferson county Republicans for the Federal jobs, that is with the exception of Sheriff Ross.

Judging from the enthusiasm displayed among Democrats and the activity of the Jackson and other Democratic clubs the Republican machine is also doomed to meet defeat in Louisville, and the surest indication is that Republican office-holders are trying to get in out of the storm by landing Federal positions. Democratic leaders and all are intent on selecting a representative ticket—one that will appeal to all, with a platform of "lower taxes" as the chief slogan. Among the men suggested for Mayor recently are two live and aggressive Democrats—Joe Orested and Robert Lee Page. Either would make a fine candidate and what a picnic it will be for Democratic speakers on the stump exposing the profligate gambling and lives, the Keystone police, the "kick" fire department and the condition of our streets and alleys. Miss Louise Morel, Chairman of the City Betterment Committee of the Louisville Women's City Club, said Saturday in an address that "there is not a clean alley in Louisville." Evidently the present street cleaning department does not clean alleys.

WANTED—Some "Goody-goody" man to run for Mayor on the Republican ticket, one that will fool the preachers and the Men's Federation. Only qualifications needed—sit in the Mayor's chair, play golf and allow interested parties to run the administration. Apply at Hett-Searcy-Chilton machine headquarters and no questions asked. The above about explains the attitude of the local Republican machine, which is in a quandary for a leader for the G. O. P. ticket. As for the other places Ches will make personal selections and there will be no trouble as to the Republican women for this reason. No meeting of the Republican women can be called, as the Hett-Searcy-Chilton machine does not want the colored women to attend and have a voice. So to simplify the matter the machine will pick the ticket, dropping Jailer Barr, Dr. Carter, Fred Nuetzel and a few others. No colored men or women will be selected even though they furnish 60 percent of the Republican vote, and to pacify them the machine promises a continuation of the crap shooting games for the low brow darlings and Shawnee Park for the better class of colored folks.

The Republican League, which disavows its claim shaving methods by collecting two dollars apiece from city and county employees, issues propaganda every now and then in a little pamphlet entitled "Facts" or in the "Log Cabin," which is conducted and edited by men on the city payroll. But to the point. A recent issue of the Log Cabin said: "Major Neuschwander has given the city the best first service it ever had, and he is striving to make the Louisville department a model for the whole country." We bet the fire underscrivers outside of Louisville will appreciate that rich piece of humor. The fire loss in the city of Louisville since the first of the year has been over a half million dollars. The Louisville Food Products fire of last Sunday alone showed a fire loss of nearly $400,000, and the two Woolworth store fires a loss of over $60,000. This breaks all records for the city of Louisville in fire loss, and the Log Cabin says the department is showing big improvement. Sunday the Food Products fire was held to a $400,000 loss by the fact that Jupiter Pluvius came through with a heavy downpour and then again the residents of the neighborhood showed their confidence in the "efficient" fire department by using garden hose and buckets of water all afternoon to save their homes. And the machine Herald had the "gall" Thursday to say that Chief Neuschwander in a report complimented the fire department for good and efficient work. Please page the Board of Fire Underscrivers.

The lack of confidence in the Republican leaders for success this fall has spread to the Keystone and day in and day out you can notice the Keystone cops sneaking past the Street Car Company offices to see if that placard it said saying: "Motormen and conductors wanted." The comedy cops are casting longing eyes at their old jobs and it is no uncommon sight to see a Keystone policeman on the front of a car above the motorman's side and practicing running the car for several squares, or either he is on the back of the car for the conductor giving "two bells" to go ahead. In the station houses this past week there were many crowded conferences of the "Keystone boys" all talking earnestly at the same time. An outsider thinking they might be real police would think they were discussing catching some of the numerous crooks in our midst or locating just a few of the many auto-thefts stolen every night. But that is far from the case. The city and country boys were greatly interested in the effect of the frost on the crows "back hum."

There are four unsolved mysteries puzzling the Keystone police department this week, but no one else. First mystery—who shot the man of the whisky and tonic amonating seven or eight dozen bottles right out of Central Station. Next mystery—who shot the man in the Tenderloin district and why did he shoot her. Third mystery—who shot the man who was shot by the city employe was that took Heater Hicks, the poisoned woman, from Bruen's Park to the City Hospital, and last but not least, who was the man that did the shooting in the Seelbach Hotel with Deputy Sheriff Hoard, and who was the shooter at the city employe, if not a policeman or city sheriff, why was he carrying a pistol. All of these seem to be mysteries only to the Keystone police, and we would like to see the report of Chairman Paul Burlingame or Chief Petty Officer the Keystone version of these puzzling (?) cases.

MACKIN BOYS HONORED.

Members of Mackin Council has kettled team, pennant winners in the Catholic League, were guests of honor at a banquet given by Mackin Council, V. M. I., at the Tyler Wednesday night. George J. Thornton was toastmaster, and talks were made by the Rev. Father F. R. Cotton, the Rev. Father J. D. Fallon, August Mertz and Anthony McGuire. The members of the team are Leo Connelly, Raymond Schott, Patrick Sammerman, Wilbert Botts, Cletus Laffey, John and Roger McDermott, Edward Thelman and Frank Stiggers.

BENEFIT FOR COLLEGE.

On Tuesday evening, April 12, the Alumna Association of Presentation Academy will present a short sketch entitled "The Man Who Came Back," in St. Xavier's Auditorium. In addition to this a short musical programme will be rendered. This entertainment is for the benefit of Nazareth College and a cordial invitation is extended to all its patrons and friends.

ASYLUM TO BE DENIED.

According to the Associated Press reports from Washington the appeal of counsel for Donald J. Callaghan, Lord Mayor of Cork, who arrived in this country as a stowaway without a passport several months ago, to have asylum given him in the United States as a political refugee, will be denied by the State Department. An opinion may be handed down in the case soon.

TEXAS SURE GOING.

In San Antonio, Texas, of less than 100,000 population, are eight academies for young ladies, three colleges for young men, two theological seminaries, four universities for Sisters and one for Brothers, two Juniorities for the Oblate Fathers and the Marxist Fathers, thirteen parochial schools for white children and three for colored children, and three kindergartens, all Catholic.

For his bloodthirsty and cruel reign in Ireland John Bull receives recognition from his future landlord.

NATIONAL MEETINGS.

The most important Catholic gathering of the year, the annual meeting of the Bishops, will be held in Washington in September. It is probable that the meeting of the National Council of Catholic Men will be held the same month, but the place and the definite date have not yet been decided upon. The National Council of Catholic Women will meet in October at a place still to be decided. Among the convention dates and places that have been definitely decided are:

June 17-19—Catholic Educational Association at Cincinnati.
July 12—Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association at Atlantic City.
July 17-21—Ancient Order of Hibernians and Ladies' Auxiliary at Detroit.
August 2-4—Knights of Columbus at San Francisco.
August 7-10—Central Verein at Ft. Wayne, Ind.
August 18-21—Catholic Students' Mission Crusade at Dayton, O.
September 20-24—National Conference of Catholic Charities at Milwaukee.
October 2-4—National Congress of the Third Order of St. Francis at Chicago.
The American Catholic Historical Association will meet in St. Louis in the last week of December.

GROWTH OF THE CHURCH.

Kenedy's Official Catholic Directory for 1921 furnishes interesting statistics, which show that the Catholic Church is still growing, and growing rapidly. There are now 23,122,859 members of the Catholic Church in the United States and its possessions, and the increase for the year 1920 was 17,855,646 in the United States proper. This is an increase of 150,993 in this country alone, and with the revised statistics from our possessions, shows a total gain of 300,000 over the statistics furnished last year. Such figures clearly demonstrate that religion is not losing ground in this modern era, but rather is gaining many new adherents. Statistics for converts reported by seventy-three dioceses state that in the year 1920 over 39,000 adults became Roman Catholics.

AUXILIARY SCHOLARSHIP.

The fourth examination for a scholarship at Trinity College, Washington, D. C., endowed by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, will take place May 25 next. Their first student entered from Scranton twelve years ago, and after completing the four-year course entered the community and is now one of the teaching staff. The second student also entered from Scranton, the third coming from Chicago. The officers and members in Jefferson county are in hopes that the time is near when Kentucky, where there are so many institutions of learning for Catholic women, will try to win this excellent opportunity for a higher education. Miss May Corcoran, County President, will cheerfully give further information to teachers and students, who doubtless will appreciate this announcement.

HOLY ROSARY ACADEMY.

The Holy Rosary Alumnae Association announces an illustrated lecture by Mrs. George Courtney, of Detroit, for next Monday at the academy auditorium. The Senior Class will present "A Southern Cinderella," a three-act play, on April 7 and 8 for the benefit of the Irish relief fund. A matinee will be given on April 7 for children.

LAI D TO REST

Thousands Pay Homage at Bier of Cardinal Gibbons in Baltimore Cathedral.

Funeral Thursday Morning Marked by Pomp and Ceremony Most Solemn.

Hierarchy, Catholic Countries, Nation and State Represented at Services.

REVERED AS MODEL CITIZEN.

Men and women of every race, creed and social condition were joined in the general grief over the demise of James Gibbons, America's beloved Cardinal, eminent churchman and patriot citizen. Daily until the funeral Thursday morning thousands filed slowly down the central aisle of the Cathedral and past the catafalque on which, robed in purple, gold and white, lay the body of Cardinal Gibbons with head toward the altar. At each side of the body gleamed three candles and above the head burned the candles in a seven-branched candelstick. Beginning Monday morning funeral masses were said, all being largely attended, and attesting the sense of loss felt by the people as a whole. A cablegram was received by Bishop Corrigan from the Papal secretary of state, Cardinal Gasparri, which read as follows: "The august Pontiff has learned with profound sorrow of the death of His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons. He offered prayers for the soul of the deceased and his relatives and heartful condolences to your lordship, to the clergy and to the faithful of the archdiocese."

Cablegrams and messages of condolence were also received from the Queen and Prime Minister of Belgium, the American Ambassador to Italy, the National Federation of Ukrainian Jews and thousands of others from all over the world. Gov. Albert C. Ritchie issued a proclamation Tuesday calling on all citizens of the State to cease work at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, the hour of the funeral, and offer a prayer of gratitude "for the example of Cardinal Gibbons' life, of thankfulness for the memory of him which will dwell with us, and for the repose of the soul of our beloved friend."

Resolutions passed at a memorial meeting of the Baltimore City Council asked that all business in Baltimore be suspended five minutes, beginning at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, as a mark of respect.

Thursday morning with all pomp and ceremony of the Catholic church and the singing of a Gregorian chant never before heard outside the St. Peter's chapel in Rome, the funeral and burial of the beloved Cardinal Gibbons took place in Baltimore. The Apostolic Delegate at Washington, two fellow members of the College of Cardinals, Archbishops and Bishops, Archbishops and Abbots, secular clergy and clergy belonging to the orders—all were massed in the Cathedral of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary for the final mass. There also were diplomatic representatives of the Catholic countries of the world, while officials of Nation, State and city attended the service, mourning a fellow citizen. The most Rev. John Bonzano, Apostolic Delegate, was celebrant of the mass, and the Most Rev. Archbishop Glennon, of St. Louis, preached the sermon, in which he paid eloquent and feeling tribute to the dead Cardinal, whose memory will be a benediction in the hearts of all Catholics.

Silence spread all over Baltimore when in response to proclamations by Governor and Mayor all traffic and every activity stopped when the mass began at 10 o'clock. The ceremony was attended by church dignitaries and lay delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada. Among churchmen of high rank who arrived Wednesday were Archbishop John Bonzano, Apostolic Delegate; William Cardinal O'Connell, Boston, and Louis Cardinal Beilin, Canada.

CATHOLIC PROGRESS.

According to the Kenedy Official Catholic Directory, just issued and for sale at the Rogers church goods store, the summary for the United States shows many interesting and significant figures. There are sixteen Archbishops, ninety-three Bishops and 21,643 priests, which is an increase of over 600 during the past year. During 1920 152 new parishes were established, making the total of churches with resident priests 10,790, as against 10,608. There are 5,790 missions with churches, making a grand total in the country of 15,580 Catholic churches. This shows that, during 1920, 399 new churches were erected by Roman Catholics in this country, or an average of one each day. Another significant increase is in the 6,048 free parochial schools, maintained solely by the contributions of Catholics in the United States, with an average daily attendance of 1,771,418, clearly showing the effort being made by the church to instill religion as well as general knowledge into the minds of her young children. Four new colleges for boys, six academies for girls, and two orphanages were erected during the past year, with figures showing 46,777 orphans cared for in Catholic institutions.

EXPRESSES SYMPATHY.

A message of sympathy for the women and children who have been made homeless since the fighting began in Ireland was sent Saturday by President Harding to a New York committee which asked him to write an expression to be read at a mass meeting scheduled for April 3 in the Metropolitan Opera House. The letter, addressed by President Harding to Judge Morgan J. O'Brien, Chairman of the Executive Committee, makes no allusion that could be construed as expressing an opinion on the merits of the struggle in Ireland, one way or the other. It merely wished full success for the benefit performance as well as for other undertakings of similar character.

STATE DIRECTORATE MEETS.

Miss Mary Corcoran will leave this morning for Lexington where she will attend the meeting of the State Directorate of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, called by State President Martin T. Kelly, to be held in the Fayette Bank building. The object is to discuss and form plans vital to the success of the plans in Kentucky and also to transfer the funds to Miss Corcoran, who was elected Treasurer at the recent State convention. There

STRIKING CONTRAST.

Press dispatches state that Pope Benedict, in his allocution delivered at the recent secret consistory, alluded to Ireland having her ancient struggles renewed. There had been an outbreak of appalling violence and crimes in contradiction of the laws of morality, the Pontiff declared, "crimes which we condemn by whichever side committed." If there is any consolation in that for those who are responsible for the unspeakable crimes of the "Black and Tans" in Ireland they are welcome to it. The Pope condemns crimes by whomsoever they are committed. And the burden of the crimes in Ireland rests on the British hirelings there and the Lloyd George Government that sent them there to do their devilish work. In spite of the attempt to cover up and gloss over the murders and burnings, the world knows the record that has no parallel in modern times.

In striking contrast to this fearless stand of Pope Benedict XV, appears the action of the Anglican Bishops of England at their recent convocation at York. The convocation decided by a vote of 17 to 15 not to condemn the military reprisals in Ireland but to recommend prayers for the country. The reprisals consist in shooting innocent men in their beds—as was done in the case of the Mayor of Limerick and the ex-Mayor of the same city last week—the wrecking and burning of homes, stores, factories and creameries and the destruction of food supplies of families wherever found. If these things had been done in Belgium the Anglican Bishops would have been swift and sure in their condemnation and in their protest in the name of humanity. But because they have been done by British forces in Ireland, the Anglican Bishops refuse to condemn them. Well, they have not made the world think better of them or of their reprisals by their silence. A body of clergymen that refuses to condemn crimes of this nature has forfeited the respect of humanity everywhere.

FLAGS FOR THE POPE.

It transpired that Cardinal Dougherty, on departing for Europe, found three American flags aboard his ship. These were a gift to the Holy Father from John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, to attest the latter's gratification at the elevation of the Archbishop of that city to the Cardinalate. When Cardinal Dougherty arrived in Rome he sent the flags to His Holiness. On entering the Pope's private library Cardinal Dougherty and his companions beheld the flags displayed on the Holy Father's chair. His Holiness smiled graciously and engaged the Cardinal and the members of his party in pleasant conversation.

FORBID CENSUS.

Tightening of the Ulster boycott "until the British war of aggression on the Irish people ceases" was considered at a meeting of the available members of the Dail Eireann in Belfast. From time to time, it was decided, the Sinn Fein Ministry, through the Department of Trade, will issue decrees naming the prohibited articles. Fair notice will be given before their enforcement. Another measure passed by the Sinn Fein Parliament authorizes the Minister of Home Affairs to forbid next month's census "as an invasion by alien authorities on the Irish people's rights."

GRATEFUL TO HARDING.

Gratitude for President Harding's support of the movement in America to raise funds for the suffering in Ireland has been called to the White House by the Lord Mayor of Dublin. "The grand and afflicted people of Ireland," the cablegram said, "are sincerely gratified by your encouragement of the movement to give them financial support of America was always true to Ireland in her hour of trial. The funds are urgently needed to restore buildings destroyed and to relieve distress."

DOMINICAN CHURCH MISSION.

St. Louis Bertrand's church will have a two weeks' mission beginning tomorrow, the first week for women and the second for men. Services in the evening will consist of rosary instructions, recitation of the third part of the rosary, sermon and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Masses on Sundays at the usual hour and on week days at 5 and 8 o'clock, a short instruction following the 8 o'clock mass.

MILLIONS FOR SEMINARY.

Catholics of the Detroit diocese asked to subscribe $4,000,000 for the erection and endowment of a preparatory seminary have subscribed $9,085,337.74. It was intended for the purpose of training for six years' initial training for the priesthood, but the oversubscription will make possible not only the preparatory courses, but also a major seminary with its six years of philosophy and theology. The largest pledge was $250,000.

JOINT INITIATION.

Mackin and Trinity Councils, Y. M. I., will hold a joint initiation at Trinity Council hall on Sunday afternoon, April 10, to be followed by a luncheon and entertainment. The degrees will be conferred by the Unity Council team of New Albany.

LADIES' SOCIAL.

The ladies of St. Charles' congregation have completed extensive arrangements for their social entertainment, to be given Monday night in the school hall. Twenty-seventh and Chestnut. The public is invited and an enjoyable evening is assured.

IRELAND

American Citizen Imprisoned and His Home Raided by British Soldiers.

John Scanlan Sentenced for Having Ammunition Placed by Police.

Hounded Until Prostrated His Wife Complains to American Consul.

UNDRESSED AND SEARCHED.

John Scanlan, fifty-nine, an American citizen, and former lieutenant in the New York Police Department, lies ill in the British prison at Ipswich. He has been in jail since November 25, 1920. He is a victim of a Black and Tan raid made on his home in Killalee, County Clare, Ireland. His wife, a New York woman, is suffering from nervous prostration. Subsequent to the raid in which her husband was taken away her home was visited three times by the Black and Tans. For a time it was feared she would not recover. Letters containing pathetic appeals for help written by Mrs. Scanlan to Mr. and Mrs. James Hart, have resulted in an inquiry into the case by the United States Government.

The letter describes the treatment to which Mr. and Mrs. Scanlan were subjected. Scanlan was tried by a court-martial and convicted of having ammunition in his home. The ammunition, Mrs. Scanlan says, was brought there by the Black and Tans. She and her friends here point out that her husband's physical condition has been such since 1912 that he could not possibly have participated in any activities against the British Government. Mason Mitchell, American Consul at Queenstown, declined to intervene after her husband's arrest on the ground the British Government had then taken no action. After Scanlan was convicted and sent to prison, her letters say, Mitchell this time declined to intervene on the ground that a British court had acted and he could not interfere.

Describing the raid of November 25, Mrs. Scanlan's letter reads: "The Black and Tans came into my house. Most of them were drunk. Some of them kept pistols pointed at Mr. Scanlan during the entire period of the raid, three and a half hours. They searched the house. I gave them every assistance, as I know we had nothing to conceal."

The following day the home was again raided and looted, and it was not until Christmas eve Mrs. Scanlan learned her husband was in Wornwood Scrub, Prison, London, and that he was to be shipped to an unknown destination in England. Frantic, the following day, she telephoned to Consul Mitchell, who answered that "it would be necessary to know the result before the matter could be taken up." Commenting on the Consul's reply Mrs. Scanlan writes: "You can not imagine the awful state of affairs here. On Christmas night the choice lot of Black and Tans we have in Killalee raided and robbed farmhouses outside the town. They stole everything they could find. Even wedding rings were carried off. A few shillings, wages of poor laborers, were stolen in many cases."

In the early part of January, 1921, Mrs. Scanlan, who was ill, had another attack of nervous prostration, a form letter written from Ipswich Prison, England, which told her husband was there. Only the signature was in her husband's handwriting. Again on January 17 her home was visited and the brutal and outrageous treatment of the women by the Crown forces is thus described:

"We were taken downstairs and undressed and searched by a woman. The Black and Tans went through the house. After they went away again I made a search. Doors and windows and furniture had been smashed. My jewelry had been taken. One of the pieces was a gold watch with a chain and cross set with pearls. My handbag containing some money was taken and other valuables. When all was over I collapsed. I could not get a physician until morning. He said I was suffering from nervous prostration."

Three days later, while Mrs. Scanlan was seriously ill in bed, the raiders again came. This time, her letters show, they confined themselves to searching the house and terrorizing the women. Her last letter reads:

"I intend to stick hero and defend my home as long as there is a roof over my head. I have sent full reports of the raids and the damage done to the American Consul and to the British authorities. I am hoping my friends in America will insist on an investigation."

DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Daughters of Isabella will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in Knights of Columbus Hall. Important lectures now feature the meetings, the next of which will be given April 16, and all members are urged to hear them. Mrs. Thomas H. Black has been appointed choir leader. Tomorrow the Financial Secretary will be present at 2:30.

LOUISVILLE, KY. SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1921

MAKE ENGLAND PAY.

Lloyd George, Carson and the rest of the crew, whose hands reek with the blood of innocent men, women and children in Ireland, snarl at Americans who dare sympathize or protest against civilized (?) England making a veritable hell out of Erin's green isle. That snarl is repeated when England is asked to pay that $4,000,000,000 which she owes us today with interest, the interest at present being paid for by the people of America in their taxes. The world knows today that John Bull has hogged and stolen all of the profits and war loot possible and is well able to pay his just debts. Every Liberty Bond owner and every American citizen demands that England must pay her just debt to this country. America can except no gratitude from the whining, sniveling coward that was fighting with his back to the wall and ready to quit, but she does expect the payment of her just debts. Make England pay.

POWERFUL SIDELIGHT.

Nothing could better illustrate the inherent weakness of the British Empire than the trade agreement made with the Soviet Government. The value of this agreement in pounds sterling will not prove as great as some people imagine, and the fact that the agreement hangs on the promise of Russia to refrain from pushing Bolshevik propaganda into the British possessions in Asia shows that England is living in a state of chronic terror of the Russian Bear. This throws a powerful sidelight on political conditions in India. It shows conclusively that the Hindoos are breaking away from their British leading strings, and only require a very little push from their powerful Soviet neighbor to pull down the imperial house of cards about the ears of the British establishment. It may suit Russia's present purpose to yield to Britain's whim of distress, but the respite will be temporary. England's Asiatic empire is doomed. Lloyd George's vicious attack on the Lehar party will prove its death knell.

BETTER COURSE.

It is announced that the elections under the home rule act in Ireland will take place early in May. What will be the attitude of the Republicans towards the election? Will they ignore the election utterly or use it to further their own ends? Our humble opinion is that the latter course would be the better one. If they allow the election to go by default to the raters or Unionists, they will simply be throwing away a weapon, even though a poor one, of defense or of aggression, as the case may be. The Republicans should fight the election, for if they let it go by default to their enemies their action will be interpreted as due to the fact that they have not the mass of the people with them in their fight for freedom.

REGARDED AS INVASION.

The war in Ireland is being pursued with increasing vigor, the honors so far going to the Republican army. We do not hesitate to say that the situation in Ireland has proven too much for the British Government. The Sinn Feiners have outgeneraled Lloyd George at every turn. The British Government is up a tree and does not know how to crawl down without breaking its neck. There are now more troops in Ireland than there are men of recruiting age in that country, and yet they are unable to compel any semblance of obedience to British rule or of observance of British laws. The people simply ignore both. They regard British officialdom as an invasion of their just rights, as it undoubtedly is, and do not hesitate to attack the invaders at every favorable point. So far the Republicans are more than holding their own. Let us pray that their efforts will be crowned with success.

OSTRACIZE ENGLAND.

From time to time we read editorials severely condemning Russia's present rulers and opposing the United States having business or social relations with the Russian Government because of its cruelty. Ireland today is dotted with ruined villages, ashes of little homesteads, that were robbed first. Men, women and children have been beaten and murdered. The prisons are filled with men and women arrested on flimsy charges, their families broken up and dependent on charity for their very living. Yet we read of no suggestions to boycott and condemn the John Bull Government, whose course is ten times more barbarous than Russia's.

WANTS NO PEACE.

A statement issued by the Irish Parliament charges that "a new peace offensive is being launched against the Irish Republic. England would make the world believe that she really desires peace. At the same time she is carrying on her campaign of assassination, looting and burning behind the smoke screen of peace thus created by her new service. The representatives of the Irish people have, time after time, expressed their desire for peace. England can have peace tomorrow by withdrawing her army of occupation and her uniformed assassins from Ireland." But England does not want peace in Ireland except on the terms that the Irish people should consent to be annihilated. That they will not consent to. So the peace offensive is really a war measure.

FIELD FOR REFORM.

Men and women of all creeds agree that one of the greatest menaces to the future of the United States is the appalling number of divorces, which means the breaking up of many homes and consequently a severe blow to morals. Now here's a field for the Blue Sunday reformers and prohibition advocates that will keep them busy, and at the same time they will be rendering a duty sure to be more appreciated than their present roles. Of course slush funds and political power will not be the reward, but sincere reform could succeed hypocricy.

REST IN PEACE.

Archbishop Shaw, of New Orleans, in his tribute to Cardinal Gibbons, says of the lamented eminent churchman and patriotic citizen: Beloved of God and men the Cardinal's memory will be in benediction in the hearts of all Catholics. His flock with grateful memories of his paternal guidance of their spiritual destinies will long grieve that they will no more see the face of their gentle shepherd. The Church, which bestowed every honor on him in life for his apostolic labors in word and in work, and which welcomed his wise counsel in the Sacred College of her princes, will reverence his memory as one of her most illustrious sons whose names live on to generation and generation. By all men of good will, whether in his own dear America that he passionately loved or in the nations that always found a friend in him, James Cardinal Gibbons will be venerated as a model citizen and admired as a patriot sans peur at sans reproche.

ST. PHILIP NERI MISSION.

A two weeks' mission will begin at St. Philip Neri's church tomorrow, the exercises to be conducted by Very Rev. Father J. R. Clark and Rev. Father L. Finerty, of the Dominican order. The first week of the mission will be for women and the second for men. Mission masses will be at 6:40 and 7:40 o'clock, with a short instruction after the second mass. Rosary, rosary instructions, sermon and benediction every evening at 7:30 o'clock.

GENERAL INTENTION.

The general intention of the Sacred Heart League for April is "The Suppression of Modern Paganism." Surely no subject for prayer is more appropriate. The world seems to be swamped in paganism. Pleasure is the watchword of the hour. In dress, in theatricals, in picture shows, the drift is away from purity and religion. The Sacred Heart League is a wonderful organization, world-wide in its activities. If the prayers of the members are what they are expected to be—earnest, appealing—surely improvement will come.

CLEAN MOVIES.

WRONG DATE GIVEN.

LEAGUE BLUNDER.

The Bishop of Limerick, Dr. Hallinan, calls attention to the consequences of the exclusion of the Pope, the representative of the Prince of Peace, from the Peace Conference. The seeds, not of future peace, but of more destructive wars, are being planted. The principles of justice, truth and charity have been forgotten, and those of selfishness, jealousy and mutual distrust have taken their place. Commercial and national rivalries have supplanted the ideals for which it was proclaimed the war was fought. Yet, observes the prelate, the whole world today is converging towards the Vatican. May we not say with-out rashness that here the finger of God is pointing out to a distracted world that powerful armistice, dominant nation and underpinned diplomacy can not permanently override the laws of truth, justice and honesty, of which the supreme and infallible exponent is the Pope? When the Pope was robbed of his temporal attributes fifty years ago a cry of triumph went forth from the enemies of the church that it had ceased to exist. It was—but it would be no more. Vain was the victory. The world is slowly realizing that might has still to reckon with right. That moral fact looms larger every hour now that the alliances formed in the stress of battle are going to pieces under the solvent of conflicting ambitions.

In the passing away of Mrs. Mildred A. Kelly at her residence, 956 South Fourth street, last Saturday night, Louisville loses one of its oldest and most respected women and the Cathedral parish a devoted member. Mrs. Kelly was born in Eddyville on November 23, 1830. Two sons, W. C. Kelly, Charleston, W. Va., and John G. Kelly, Pittsburgh, and two daughters, Mrs. W. B. Lockett, New York, and Mrs. R. C. Thompson, Louisville, survive her. Funeral services and solemn requiem mass were held Tuesday morning at the Cathedral.

Friends and relatives in Louisville were deeply grieved when news was received from Jasper College that Frank Schmitt, Jr., had succumbed to diphtheria. He was eighteen years old, the son of Frank and the late Fannie Schmitt, and was a young man of much promise. Besides his father several brothers and sisters are left to mourn his untimely death. The body was brought to the L. D. Bax chapel on Thursday, the interment taking place at St. Louis cemetery Friday afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Catherine Schmidt Schuler, seventy years old, who died at the residence of her son, John G. Schuler, 2507 Duncan street, were held Wednesday morning at St. Cecilia's church, of which she was a most devout and highly esteemed communicant. Besides John G. Schuler, Mrs. Schuler is survived by two other sons, Andrew Schuler, Los Angeles, and George Schuler, a daughter, Mrs. Mary Briscoe, Louisville.

Daniel McNamee, for many years a respected and well known resident of this city, was called into eternal rest Saturday night at the residence of his nephew, John T. O'Connor, 1430 South Preston street. Born sixty-five years ago, he had lived an active and useful life. His funeral was held Monday morning from St. Paul's church, Rev. Father Eugene Donohue celebrating the requiem high mass.

Mrs. Bridget Touhey, sixty-five years old, died Saturday night at her home, 769 Logan street, following an illness of six months. She is survived by five daughters and one son. Monday morning the remains were taken to Mayfield, where the funeral and burial took place.

WELFARE COUNCIL.

Affiliated with the National Catholic Welfare Council are 9,714 men's organizations and 4,958 women's organizations, a total of 14,672 societies of Catholics in the United States.

DISCUSS ON IRELAND.

Pope Benedict on Tuesday received Archbishop Mannix, of Australia, who presented to the Pontiff a report concerning his archdiocese and also discussed at length the situation in Ireland.

SEEKS WIDER FIELD.

A national campaign to bring to the very small town and the rural community all of the service that has proved highly successful and a wonderful force for good in the big cities is being conducted by the Salvation Army. The Salvation Army did excellent work in the Great War, and any help rendered now will be appreciated.

LYCEUM PLANNED.

Washington business men, under the direction of the Rev. J. D. Fowler, O. P., pastor of St. Dominic's church and formerly prior at St. Louis Bertrand's this city, have started a campaign for $10,000 with which to erect a Dominican Lyceum, which will have facilities for the entertainment of its members along athletic, social, dramatic and literary lines. The project is non-sectarian in character, according to Thomas W. Greene, Vice President of the Lyceum. "For years the lack of facilities in this section of the District of Columbia for the proper entertainment of men has been keenly felt," said Greene in a formal statement of the campaign. "We will endeavor to supply that need through the erection of a building which will have an auditorium, gymnasium, social gathering rooms and other facilities. Everyone in the vicinity will be welcomed to the club house and we hope for the support of all the residents in our campaign."

ARGENTINE PILGRIMAGE.

An Irish-Argentine pilgrimage to Lujan will be held under the auspices of the Passionist Fathers on St. Patrick's day to implore divine aid, through the intercession of our Blessed Lady, in behalf of suffering Ireland.

The pilgrimage, which promises to be one of the most notable of its kind ever held in Buenos Aires, will also commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the death of Father Faby, beloved Irish apostle of the River Platte.
